2020 was Christian Lepah true breakout year with his debut on the All Day I Dream label with the track 'Sundar' which received critical acclaim. Christian Lepah's productions have topped the Beatport charts, achieving upwards of 1 million streams to date on Spotify. After 3 weeks being No 1 in Beatport, he received his First Vinyl for "Love Song" and "Emotions" from the Melody of The Soul label. His productions were constantly found in the sets of artists like Adam Port, Keinemusik, Satori, Blond:ish, Lee Burridge, Aaron Sevilla, Valeron, Newman, Tim Green, Diass, Izhevski, Dimo, M.O.S., Paul Twins and many more.

Christian Lepah has played at Mixmag the Lab, Coya Mykonos, Untold, Saga, Massif, House of Press to name just a few.

2023 had a major impact on Christian Lepah's music career when his track with Victhor "Who is He" ended up being played by KEINEMUSIK all around the world, this propelled him to the top of the A-list Producers.

He now finds himself in a place where he is totally musically happy.

Looking forward to the rest of the year, there seems to be no change in Christian Lepah's relentless pursuit of quality output. He will be releasing landmark records as Christian Lepah that have been in the works for some time... plus a few more surprises in store no doubt.
